

Name: XYZ

Subject: Corporate and Economic Laws.

Marks scored: 19/70

Q1 (a) You have scored 3/6 marks in the given question.

- You have only quoted section 197(1) in the answer. Reference of section 197(6) and 197(4) also is required to answer second part of the question.
- Answer should start with Provision followed by case law and at the end conclusion. Final answers should always be given if right provision is quoted.
- You should try to increase knowledge of crossover sections and try to consolidate all relevant sections which are required to complete answer as per ICAI requirement.

Q1 (b) You have scored 2/6 marks in the given question.

- Your answer was incomplete as it was not containing other audio modes along with video conferencing.
- It states that meeting is valid but required provisions were incomplete.
- Audio teleconferencing option for recording meeting of director is not valid which was not written in paper.
- Work more on the concepts.

Q1 (c) You have scored 3/4 marks in the given question.

- You have correctly identified Compromise and arrangements section 230 which was necessary.
- Provision explanation was good but 1-2 additional points after order of tribunal were missed.
- Please refer the suggested answers for the same.

Q2 (a) You have scored 0/4 marks in the given question.

- You have quoted correct provision and also reached correct final conclusion but you have quoted wrong section number.
- Quoting section number is not mandatory but if you quote wrong section number you won't get any marks for it.
- If you are not sure about section please start your answer as "As per relevant provision of XYZ Act"

Q2 (b) You have scored 5/10 marks in the given question.

- You have correctly written 13 sub headings as asked for in question but only 5 were written correctly.
- Don't try to write vague answers if you are not sure about exact points.
- Always try to attempt such questions in last so as to avoid bad impression in eyes of examiner.
- Refer the suggested answer for points.
-

Q2 (c) You have scored 4/4 marks in the given question.

- The answer was very much valid along with the provisions required.
- You mentioned the case law which was correct and had also given contradictory case law reference.
- Underlining important point creates good impression in eyes of examiner.

Q3 (a) You have scored 2/4 marks in the given question.

- Number of director which will retire comes out to 12 as proportion representation director won't be counted. As you quoted most of the provision correct you will get 2 marks for provision and explanation.
- Your final answer was wrong still you managed to score 2 marks.
- Always try to complete 100 marks paper as we get step marks and collectively we tend to score more.